Building and Construction Restumping Business For Sale #9171

Add on to your existing business with instant growth. This business offers everything a passive investor would look for.

High valued plant and equipment worth over - $350,000

Skilled and experienced staff

Secured future contracts in place

Work remotely with managing minimum staff

There was never a time when house raising was not required and never will be. This business not only specialise in restumping, but they also offer various construction services such as soil testing, retention wall, levelling, and certification. There is no limit to the work being a more than 27 years old business. Additionally, there is a huge potential for a new owner to grow the business with a little bit of more marketing and adding more staff.

The adjusted net profit for the business is just over $110,000 with minimum hours worked by the owner. Besides, the business only rents a shed to store the plant and equipment. So, it is easily relocatable and can be operated remotely.

Asking Price: $395,000 WIWO
